DAVID ROSS - By Anton Kuhn, Miami, Florida

Single to 7 inches in diameter; medium texture, slightly crinkled and ruffled, 90% overlapped petals, Phlox Pink (625) zone; pearl white throat (no number) Geranium Red Fringes (20/1); Geranium Lake (20) Stigma Pads; Three inch style, with same color as throat.

Bushy, upright and vigorously growing bush; medium green large size leaves, cordate in shape, apiculate tips, and crenate margins; good blooming one day flower.

-0-

* *

Sparkman's Nursery

2511 Commonwealth Avenue
Jacksonville, Florida

HAVE GOOD CROP OF NEW AND OLD

HIBISCUS

Ready May 1st. No shipping.

* *

WE DON'T HAVE HIBISCUS.

BUT WE DO HAVE GAS.

DROP IN AND SEE US.

RAY'S STANDARD SERVICE

13640 N.W. 7th Avenue

Miami, Florida

REPORT OF NOMENCLATURE COMMITTEE

In the very center of this issue you will find some drawings of bloom types that the committee may possibly adopt for nomenclature identification.

Following are several lists with self explanatory headings. If there is any question about any of hese please contact Mr. B. L. Barling, Committee Chairman, Rt #3, Box 683, Orlando, Florida.

To be Re-activated

Apple Blossom
Arnottianus
Arantiacus
Baby Hose
Baptistii
Bride's Maid
Burnt Orange
Carminatus Perfectus
Collerii
Cooperii
David May
Double Hilo
Fiji
Franciska
Grandiflora
General Eisenhower
Hawaiian Rose
Kopper King
Katherine Garrett
Malatoa
Mirage
Mrs. Hassinger
Nan Patterson
Naples
Old Gold
Penny's #232
Rose Dawn
September Song

Now listed to be eliminated.

Ailene Craig
Afterglow
Aldabaran
Altus
April
Anderson's Dbl. Pink
Anderson's #10
Autumn Glow
Barbara
Barbara Devens
Bertie Nichols
Black Beauty
Blooming Fool
Blue Pink
Blush
Bob Pollard
Bolero
Brownie
Butterball
Buttercup (Thornbur)
Cameo
Canary
Caprice
Captain Jack McCann
Carmen Miranda
Charles McGee
Chaing Kai Shek
Christine Johnson